

FISCAL NOTE

SB 390 - HB 970

March 14, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Prohibits the Alcoholic Beverage Commission from conducting alcohol awareness training for individuals seeking to obtain server permits.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- Alcohol Beverage Commission does not currently have a training program or trainers. There are 4 staff people that certify private trainers in Tennessee.
- In 2004, there were 48 private trainers certified by the Alcohol Beverage Commission that each taught 10 or more classes.
- Since 1995, the number of cities passing liquor-by-the-drink referendums has increased by 137%.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" written in a larger, more prominent script than the last name "White".
